Muhcine Ennou is a self-taught Moroccan artist currently living in Amsterdam. His broad range of interests led him to teach himself photography, design, CGI and Film. This has produced a hybrid practice in which these media feature in interdisciplinary cross-overs. His working process often results in the combination of analog and digital techniques in both visual and sound art that has an ability to transform the familiar into an unfamiliar encounter. Ennou has previously exhibited in Dubai, Paris, London, Casablanca and Amsterdam.
